

Galatians (BIB411)
Course Syllabus

I. Learning outcomes for BIB411

This course will afford students a considerable understanding of one of Paul's most profound and important letters.

II. Required Reading

Douglas J. Moo, Baker Exegetical Commentary: Galatians, (Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Academic, 2013).

III. Lectures

Douglas J. Moo, Galatians.

IV. Assignments

Written assignments should be turned in together at the close of a course.

- 1. Complete the assigned reading and read the Epistle to the Galatians.
- 2. Listen/watch to the assigned lectures.
- 3. Write a five page Sunday school lesson on Galatians 5:1-12. This lesson should include a detailed outline of the passage and verse by verse commentary.
- 4. Write a five page double-spaced exegetical paper on Galatians 2:15-21. This paper should incorporate at least five commentaries, Bible dictionaries, lexica, etc. other than the assigned reading. Footnote all citations and provide a cover page and works cited page.